Thank you for selecting the Electronics Travel Case

This high-density nylon case allows you to safely and conveniently store your equipment and all the accessories that go with it.

Featuring the FLEXWALL™

The FlexWall is an adjustable and removable system that can be reconfigured to fit your needs and store your gear in secure customized partitions. Simply pull to detach the FlexWall from the interior compartment of the bag. Then bend it to fit your needs and place the ends against the compartment walls. Shown to the right are just a few of the possible configurations.

Travel Case includes an adjustable and detachable shoulder strap.
